

OSCAR J. OLSON, Jr.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Texas
University of Texas; Yale University
US Army
Marriage
Entered the Foreign Service in 1957
Department of State; FSI; Spanish language training	1957
Department of State; Economic Bureau Trainee	1958
Caracas, Venezuela; Consular Officer/Staff Aide	1958-1962
Local Staff
Visas
Population
Environment
Venezuelan citizenship laws
President Romulo Betancourt
Venezuela-Dominican Republic Relations
Grace Line's problems
Fidel Castro
Relations
President Nixon visit
Security
Barcelona, Spain: Administrative Officer	1962-1964
Consular Property
Environment
Family
US fleet visits
President Kennedy assassination
Juan Carlos
Consular problems
Juarez, Mexico; Economic/Commercial Officer	1964-1966
Environment
University of Chihuahua
Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy	1966-1967
Department of State; FSI, Economic & German language training	1967-1968

State Department: INR; Analyst, West Europe Regional Political	1968-1971
Berlin, Germany (US Sector); Economic/Commercial Officer	1971-1974
Universal Postal Union Accounts
Radio frequency issues
Civil Aviation
Local Staff
Four Powers Agreement signing
Felix Bloch
Leipzig Trade Fair
East Berlin visits
VIP visitors
Environment
Mrs. Olson's activities
Panama City, Panama; Financial Officer	1974-1976
Environment
Canal Treaty negotiations
Panamanian banking
Chase Manhattan Bank
"Banana War"
U.S. National Commission for UNESCO, Executive Director for Environment Resource Management	1976-1979
"Man and the Biosphere" (MAB) Program
National Resource Management
AID
Relations with UNESCO
US Agency participants
State Department; Office of the Undersecretary for Management	1979-1982
Foreign Commercial Service legislation
Commerce-State negotiations
State's Economic-Commercial Cone
Quito, Ecuador; Economic Counselor	1982-1984
Economy
Civil Aviation
Council of the Americas
Tourism
Oil pipeline
Peace Corps
Environment
Narcotics

Retirement

1984

Smithsonian Institution

State Declassification Program

Business Environment Research (BERI)