

ALLAN W. OTTO

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Raised in Chicago area
Northwestern University and University of Illinois
Entered Foreign Service	1962
Economic Bureau, State Department	1962-1965
Berlin, Germany	1965-1967
East German visa officer
East German officials and academics
Working in a divided Berlin
Aden	1957-1968
Yemeni-Saudi-Egyptian rivalry
British interests and influence
Front for Liberation of Southern Yemen (FLOSY)
Visa problems
Refugee and Migration Affairs	1968-1971
Budget and Fiscal officer
Czech and Southeast Asian refugees
Zagreb, Yugoslavia	1971-1973
Consular and administrative officer
Warsaw, Poland	1973-1975
Chief of Consular Section
Congressional interest in Polish visas
Visa fraud
Departure bond
Immigration vs. Visitors Visas
Polish restrictions on passport issuance
Department of State	1975-1978
Mexico City, Mexico	1978-1981
American Services
Consular Officer
Visa refusal rate
Problems in visa issuance
Automatic visa lookout system (AVLOS)
Volume of visas

Fraud
Operation the visa section
National War	1981-1982
Personnel	1982-1984
Consular Placements
Cone system
Visa Office	1984-1987
Deputy Director
Operation the Visa Office
Congressional views on visas for leftists and intellectuals
Inter-agency clearance process
Irish and the IRA
Kurt Waldheim
Congressional intervention
Visa fraud
Immigration Act of 1986
Sanctions against employers of illegal immigrants
NP-5 program, lottery
Visa Office and Congressional Staffs
Quota system under 1965 Act
Reasons for change
World wide competition for visas
Chronological order method
Volume of visas
Congress and the Irish
Evaluation of the Law
Effect on Latin American countries
Immigration Act of 1990
Effect on consular staffs
Immigrant Automated Control System (IVACS)
“Contracting out”
Regional Service Centers
Comparing the new and old systems	