

SENATOR CLAIRBORNE PELL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Family history in Foreign Service
Working for father
Prague, Czechoslovakia	1945-1948
Foreign service training
Duties in consular section and protocol officer
Ambassador Lawrence Steinhardt
Predicting communist takeover
Soviet influence in Czechoslovakia
Opening post at Bratislava and US interests
Duties in Bratislava
Political situation and harassment of local staff
Genoa, Italy	1948-1949
Duties in consular section
Political situation
Relations with Consul General
Special Assistant, Office of Eastern European Affairs	1949-1950
Responsibilities
Leaving Foreign Service
Conclusion
Strengths and weaknesses of Foreign Service
Effects of Communist takeover of Czechoslovakia on attitude toward East-West relations	