

DELL PENDERGRAST

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Chicago, Illinois
- Northwestern University; Boston University
- Cuban Missile Crisis
- Entered Foreign Service - 1965
- A100 course
- Brad Bishop (murder) case
- USIA
- Serbo-Croatian language training

Belgrade, Yugoslavia - USIA 1966

Zagreb, Yugoslavia - USIA 1966-1969

- Environment
- Anti-Serbian sentiment
- Croatian nationalism
- Tito
- American School
- USIA programs
- Ustaše period
- Kosovo
- Vietnam violence

Foreign Service Institute - Vietnamese Language Training 1969-1970

Saigon, Vietnam - Foreign Service Institute Advisor 1970-1971

- Tay Ninh province
- Cao Dai religion
- Working with Vietnamese
- Political reporting
- Cambodian "incursion"
- Travel
- Military contacts
- Security
- Vietnamese-Cambodian relations
- Vietnamese people

USIA - Yugoslavia Desk Officer 1971-1972

- New USIS operations in Yugoslavia
- Programs
- Macedonia

Albanians Yugoslav unity Nationalism
Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy Environment Soviet and Eastern European studies USSR as superpower	1972-1973
Foreign Service Institute - Polish Language Training	1973-1974
Warsaw, Poland - USIA Information Officer Societal changes Solidarity movement Embassy-USIA priorities Soviet influence Long-term versus short-term goals Communists Polish press “Radish communists” Dealing with officials U.S. bicentennial celebration Polish-Americans Watergate Catholic Church Fulbright exchange program Germany Food price riots	1974-1977
USIA - Director of Policy, European Office Interagency coordination John Reinhardt Atlantic Council of the U.S. Vietnam War influence European views of U.S. Younger generation target Soviet Union East European programs French worries Afghanistan influence	1977-1980
Foreign Service Institute - French Language Program	1980-1981
Brussels, Belgium - USIS - U.S. Mission to European Economic Community (EEC) Commercial disputes	1981-1985

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> European media Ambassador George Vest Fulbright Program EC intern program (to U.S.) College of Europe Ambassador David Abshire President Reagan European gas pipeline to USSR European Parliament EC bureaucratization European agricultural policy Method of operation Terrorist threat European press corps
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Senior Seminar Course of study Observations 	1985
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Washington, DC - USIA - Deputy Director for Europe Glasnost Perestroika Gorbachev USIA influence on change Bush support Condoleezza Rice Student exchange - USSR Broadcasting to USSR and East Romania USSR disintegration Soviet reform 	1985-1990
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ottawa, Canada - USIS Anti-Americanism U.S.-Canada differences Canadian views of U.S. Canadian diversity Healthcare problem Canadian insecurity North Atlantic Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Ambassador Edward Fey Prime Minister Mulroney Cultural “imperialism” Ambassador Peter Teeley Ambassador Jim Blanchard Prime Minister Jean Chretien 	1990-1994

Conservative election and defeat
Quebec-English Canada tension
USIA programming
Kuwait-Gulf War
Cuba issue
Ethnic communities
Canadian unity
French culture
Quebec separatists
Ashbury College
“We’re not Americans” attitude
U.S. consulates
West-Canada differences
Quebec separatism
Fulbright Program
U.S. history through Canadian eyes
Canada’s U.S. embassy
Canadian foreign service

USIA - Educational and Cultural Affairs - Associate Director 1994-1997

Fulbright International Visitors Programs
Clinton relationship
Budget concerns
USIA transfer to State
Senator Bradley
Congressional interest
Fundamentalist Islam
Agency leadership
Joseph Duffey
Senator Helms

Retirement

North American education
Public Diplomacy Foundation