

JOHN D. PIELEMEIER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years and education
Joined the Peace Corps in Ivory Coast
With Trans Century Corporation in South Philadelphia
To graduate school	1968
Joined USAID and assignment in Brazil	1970
Returned to Brazil 20 years later	1991
Joined the USAID/Africa Bureau to work on project development
New assignment in Southern Africa	1977
Office of Southern Africa Regional Coordinator
Deputy Director USAID Liberia	1981
Joined USAID/PPC and then Special Assistant to Counselor of the agency
Director of the Office for South Asia	1987
Attended the Industrial College of the Armed Forces	1989
Concluding observations

KEY WORDS

Administrator McPherson Afghan “Cross Border” agricultural research agricultural training school agricultural research network Agricultural University
Aid Impact Programs
Alliance for Progress
Amazon area

Angolans
anthropologists
“anti-corruption” work
Bangladesh
Botswana
Brazil
Burkina Faso
Cameroon
Cape Verde Islands
Chad child survival democracy Democratic Republic of Congo drug education
education
ethnic “homelands”
Family Planning Program
Food for Peace
Food for Work program forestry project
graduate country
health education
HIV/AIDS
hostels for refugees
hydroelectric plants integrated pest management irrigation
Ivory Coast
JFK Hospital
Jordan
Kalahari Desert
Kenya
Lesotho
Liberia
livestock system
Malawi
Mali
Mexico
Morocco
Mozambicans
Namibia
Nepal
Niger
Non-Governmental Organizations
northeastern Brazil Office for South Asia

onchocerciasis
Operational Experts Program
Peace Corps
primary health care
primary education
privatizing
range management
resettlement program
road building programs
rural development
Sahel area
secondary education
Senegal
Southern African Development Coordination Conference (SADCC)
South Africa
Southern Africa
Sri Lanka
Sri Lanka
Swaziland
Tanzania
teaching English
Trans-African Highway scheme
US Public Law 480
Vitamin A
Volta River basin
Zaire
Zimbabwe