

AMBASSADOR DWIGHT J. PORTER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Grinell College
National Institute for Public Affairs
Working in the “New Deal”
Marine Corps, WWII
Displaced persons commission	1945-1949
State Department civil service
Frankfurt, Germany	1949-1954
High commission in Germany
Personnel
John McCloy
Marshall Plan Committee
European coal and steel community
German Constitution
Konrad Adeneaur
James Conant
London, Great Britain	1954-1959
Administrative counselor
Ambassador Winthrop Aldrich
Relations with CIA
Economic bureau	1956-1959
Executive director
Ham radio, Herbert Hoover Jr.
Douglas Dillon
Wriston Program
Hungarian Relief
Vice President Nixon
National War College	1957-1958
Robert Murphy
Scott McLeod
Gary Powers incident
Lebanon Landing
Vienna, Austria	1959-1963
Economic counselor
Salzburg, Seminar
Ambassador “Doc” Mathews

Economic problems
Administration Bureau	1963-1965
Assistant Secretary
Remarks re Ambassador Kenneth Galbraith
Vice President Johnson and Robert Kennedy
Vide Pres. Johnson's Scandinavian trip
Johnson and Dean Rusk relations
Ralph Dungan and White House
Johnson's foreign trips
William Crockett
Beirut, Lebanon	1965-1970
Palestinian problems
Cairo agreement
General Lebanese situation
US-French rivalry
US intelligence activities
Shooting begins – 1970
Syrian position on Lebanon
CIA influence
Israeli influence
1967 War
President Charles Helon
Dr. Suleman Fanjeja
Vienna, Austria (IAEA)	1970
Deputy representative to IAEA
Learning about nuclear powers and energy economics
Operations of IAEA
“Unfriendliness towards Israel”
Staffing the agency
Kennedy-Khrushchev visit to Vienna	1961
Charge
Working with Kennedy entourage
Protocol on sleeping arrangements
President Kennedy's back problem
Comments on Foreign Service
Husband-wife teams
Efficiency reports
Retirement
Westinghouse	