

ROBERT RACKMALES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Baltimore, MD
Johns Hopkins University, Harvard University
Fulbright scholarship in Germany
Edgewood Arsenal
Harter Commission Report on Foreign Service
Entered Foreign Service - 1963
State Department - Canadian Desk	1963
State Department - Passport Office, NYC	1963-1964
Lagos, Nigeria - general duties	1964-1966
Environment
Elections
Coup d'état
Ambassador Elbert Matthews
Biafra
Ibo separatism
Corruption
Soviet influence
U.S. interests and programs
FSI - Serbo-Croatian language trainee	1966-1967
Zagreb, Yugoslavia - Consular officer	1967-1969
U.S. policy
Duties and operations
Nationalism
Communism, attitude towards
Fraud
Indiana University - Area Studies	1969-1970
State Department - Albania-Bulgaria Desk Officer	1970-1972
U.S. relationship with Albania
Communist influence
U.S. interests in Bulgaria
Mogadishu, Somalia - Political officer	1972-1973
USSR relationship

Contacts
Security

Trieste, Italy - Principal Officer London agreement of 1954 Italy-Yugoslavia dispute U.S. interests Earthquake - U.S. assistance	1973-1976
State Department - INR - Eastern Europe Sources of information on German Democratic Republic Sources of information on Romania Ceausescu support Human rights in Romania Soviet relations	1976-1978
State Department - OES (Oceans and International Environment And Scientific Affairs) Task Force executive Secretary Tom Pickering, Assistant Secretary State Department role Recruitment of Science personnel Budget problems	1978-1980
Rome, Italy - Political officer Political situation Communist Party U.S. strategic interests Enrico Berlinguer CDU Party Corruption Red Brigades Contacts U.S. missile deployment Ambassador Richard Gardner Ambassador Maxwell Rabb Reporting	1980-1983
Kaduna, Nigeria - Consul General Military coups British legacy North-South rivalry U.S. relations Ambassador Tom Smith Environment U.S. interests	1983-1985

Islamic influence
National War College Star Wars Military vs. journalists	1985-1986
State Department - Bureau of Human Rights Director, Office of Human Rights Dick Schifter Duties and operations Eliot Abrams Internal conflicts Human Rights Report	1986-1987
State Department - Personnel Assignments (mid-level) Foreign Service Act of 1980 - function Minorities and affirmative action	1987-1989
Belgrade, Yugoslavia - DCM/Chargé Human Rights Ambassador Warren Zimmerman Staffing U.S. relations Serbian economic boycott of Slovenia Political situation Ethnic and republic's problems Milosevic Yugoslavia breakup Germany's attitude Tudjman Political reporting Secretary of State Baker's visit European attitude Kosovo Albanians Contact with Milosevic Human rights violations U.S. policy vs. European policy Baker warns against breakup Eagleburger visit Relations with Slovenes U.S. and European recognition problem Embassy policy deliberations FSO resignations Catholic Church attitude Macedonia U.S. and European ambassadors withdrawn	1989-1993

Prime Minister Milan panic
UN agency presence
Atrocities as political weapon
Croatian lobby in U.S.
Embassy reporting
Assistant Secretary Steve Oxman