

HAYWOOD RANKIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Washington, DC; raised in North Carolina
University of North Carolina
Clerk to Chief Justice of North Carolina Supreme Court
Entered Foreign Service - 1973

Tangier, Morocco - Vice Consul	1973-1975
State Department - Foreign Service Institute (FSI) Arabic Language Training	1975-1976
Cairo, Egypt - American University in Cairo	1976-1977
Cairo, Egypt - Staff Aide to Ambassador Concurrent duty as vice consul at Port Said Ambassador Hermann Eilts Anwar Sadat Political climate Ambassador Roy Atherton Egyptian military Sadat's Jerusalem trip Egypt's hopes Congressional visits Embassy evenhandedness	1977-1980
Oxford University - (Leave Without Pay)	1980-1982
State Department - INR - North Africa	1982-1984
Damascus, Syria - Political Officer TWA hijacking Hafez al-Assad U.S.-Syrian relations Alawites Ismaili Syrian public Travel Environment Iranians Lebanon civil war Lebanon influence	1984-1986

Israeli intentions
Assad's health

Baghdad, Iraq - Chief Political Officer	1986-1988
Iran-Iraq War
Iraqi government spending
Saddam Hussein
Kurdish rebellion
Closed society
Reign of terror
Public acceptance of Hussein
Saddam as absolute dictator
FSNs
Operating
Diplomatic corps
Foreign press
Travel restrictions
Ambassador David Newton
Environment
Barzani Kurds
Talabani Kurds
Jim Hoagland and Kurds
U.S.-Iraq relations
Khomeini (Iran)
Russian aid
U.S. aid
Iran-Contra
Gas attack on Halabcha
Contacts with Kurds
Persona non grata
Ambassador April Glaspie
Saadun Hammadi's U.S. visit
State Department - Near East Bureau - Oman Affairs	1988-1989
Muscat, Oman - Deputy Chief of Mission and Chargé d'Affaires	1989-1992
Embassy chancery building
Oman-U.S. military treaty negotiations
Sultan Qaboos
Relations with neighbors
Buraimi
Arab Baghdad summit
Iraq's Kuwait invasion
Schwarzkopf
Seeb airport
Omani reaction to Kuwait invasion

Evacuations issue
Ambassador Boehm

Algiers, Algeria - Deputy Chief of Mission 1992-1994
Ambassador Mary Ann Casey
Algiers airport bombing
Elections canceled
Army takeover
Terrorist attacks
Evacuation issue
NEA alienation
U.S.-Algeria relations
Islamists (fundamentalist) issue
Military
Contacts

State Department - INR - Director, Near East 1994-1996

Abidjan, Ivory Coast - Counselor 1996-1998
Political situation
Environment
President Bédié
Opposition parties
Ambassador Lannon Walker
U.S. influence
Elections - 2000
Alassane Ouattara