

MARTHA A. RAU

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Love at first sight; Social Usage; language as assignment determinant

Death of daughter in primitive facilities, Colombo

Kennedy assassination while in India

A clinic service “untouchables”; local women’s issues

Assignment to Bern – early ‘70s; discussion of 1972 Directive

Clinic for locals, Kathmandu

Fall of Saigon – volunteer to evacuate children

Accompanying Congressional wives, Hong Kong

Each child different on re-entry

Back to nursing as a profession

Local women’s issues in male-dominated society, Canberra

Social system to care for orphan children

Attempts to make a closer-knit wives community

Re-entry decisions with mature children

Nursing at the Department of State

Retirement and recollections of a career in the Foreign Service