

AMBASSADOR ELLIOT RICHARDSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Boston, Massachusetts
- Harvard College
- U.S. Army, WWII
- Massachusetts Republican State Committee
- Assistant to Senator Saltonstall
- Private law practice
- Assistant Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare
- Attorney General of Massachusetts
- Charter for NSC
- Under Secretary's Committee
- Chair, Committee of Presidential Appointments

Under Secretary of State

1969-1970

- Staff
- State Department organization
- Long-term foreign policy
- Functioning of State Department
- Geographic bureaus
- Role of Foreign Service
- Kissinger
- NSC and State relations
- SALT I Verification Panel
- China relationship
- Soviet-China relations
- Secretary of State William Rogers
- President Nixon policy
- Ceausescu
- Guam Doctrine
- Nixon-Rogers relationship
- Policy coordination
- Ambassadorial appointments
- Law of the Sea policy
- Tuna boat seizures
- Hickenlooper Amendment
- Secretary of Defense David Packard
- Law of the Sea Conference (third)
- Exclusive Economic Zone (2,000 mile)
- Pardo's concept
- Seabee exploitation
- Continental shelf convention

Nixon's strategic policy
Nixon's China policy
Jean de Sainteny
U.S. European force reduction
Mansfield Amendment
Strategic Trust Territory of Western Pacific
Arab-Israel issues
Yitzhak Rabin
Palestinian grievances
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare - 1970-1973
Secretary of Defense - 1973

United Kingdom - Ambassador

1975-1976

Ambassador's role
"Intrigue"
Harold Wilson