

GEORGIA A. ROGERS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Denver, Colorado
Northern Virginia Community College
Entered the State Department in 1966

State Department, Bureau of Public Affairs; Clerk Typist Environment Job functions	1966-1967
State Department; Passport Office: Stenographer/Clerk Adjudication of citizen applicants Far East cases Frances Knight Citizenship law	1967-1970
Honolulu, Hawaii: Passport Office; Clerk/Stenographer Living Environment Issuance of passports University of Hawaii studies	1970-1974
New Orleans, LA; Passport Office; Clerk/Stenographer Environment Passport load Citizenship establishment Relations with other agencies	1974-1976
Philadelphia, PA; Passport Office; Assistant Regional Director Bicentennial Programs Passport application process	1976-1978
Detroit, Michigan; Passport Office; Regional Director Office environment Opening the new office Relations with neighboring offices Canadian documentation Office closed	1978-1981
Philadelphia, PA; Passport Office; Regional Director	1981-1982
State Department Deputy Director, Citizens Emergency Center	1982-1996

Services
Travel warnings
Providing help to Americans in trouble
Pan Am 103 Lockerbie tragedy
Dealing with families of Lockerbie victims
Aviation Security Act
Training for handling emergencies
Families of arrest cases
Prisoner and Transfer Treaties
Joan Clark
Case load
Destitute cases
Beirut hostages
Terry Anderson hostage case
Middle East problems
Dealing with Consular posts
Travelers in distress
Importance of citizens' registration abroad
Children (adoption) issues
Use of e-mails (cautions)

The Senior Seminar	1996-1997
State Department; Passport Division; Managing Director Working environment	1997-2002
Retirement Changes in Passport issuance The new passport	2002