

AMBASSADOR CLAUDE G. ROSS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Childhood interest in foreign countries
Foreign Service exam
Mexico City, Mexico	1940-1941
Consular duties
Foreign Service training
Quito, Ecuador	1941-1946
Ecuador-Peru border dispute
Ambassador Long and embassy staff
Duties and responsibilities
Athens, Greece	1946-1949
Traveling to post
Increasing embassy staff
Ambassador MacVeagh
Travel in Greece during the Civil War
Noumea, New Caledonia	1949-1952
Transfer orders
New Caledonia population
Post inspection
Post conditions
Washington DC	1952-1954
US delegate to UN General Assembly
Beirut, Lebanon	1954
Religious factions among government
Traveling to Africa
Cairo, Egypt	1957-1960
Political climate
Egyptian-Syrian relations
Cuban, British, and French presence in Egypt
Conakry, Guinea	1960-1962
Guinea's attitude toward US
Economic situation
Ambassador Attwood

Bangui, Central African Republic	1963-1967
Appointment
Political History of CAR
President David Dacko
Coup d'etat
Port au Prince, Haiti	1967-1969
Papa doc
Nelson Rockefeller's visit
Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania	1969-1972
Indian population and Ujamaa village experiment
President Nyerere
Zanzibar and Tanzania's economic situation
Relations with China
Conclusion
Retirement
Inspection work
CIA's role in embassies	