

SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Comments on Johnson

- All consuming commitment to job and President
- Tireless worker
- Followed and monitored events and policies closely
- Impatient with delay
- Highly intelligent, persuasive
- Attitude towards foreign leaders
- Attitude towards cabinet members
- Personal attributes

Johnson as Majority Leader

- Informed him on foreign policy matters

Johnson as Vice President

- Foreign tours
- Curbed instincts to take leadership
- Foreign Service liaison officer

Johnson's first days as President

- Rusk offers resignation

Johnson-Rusk relationship

- Closer than with Kennedy
- Mutual loyal support
- Kennedy associates policy differences
- Johnson-Kennedy family relations
- Bobby Kennedy

Johnson's family

- Lady Bird Johnson

Johnson and foreign policy

- Johnson and Kosygin
- Kept himself well informed
- Mexico and Western Hemisphere
- U. Thant
- "Tuesday Lunch"
- National Security Council role
- Use of staff (Walt Rostow, etc.)
- State relations with White House staff
- Rostow vs. McGeorge Bundy

- State-Defense relationship
- Johnson-State relationship
- SIG-IRG
- Johnson's presidential appointments
- Attitude toward career professionals
- State Department "Planning"
- George Ball as "devils advocate"

- Rusk-Johnson working relationship
  - Serious decision-making
  - Johnson preoccupation with Vietnam
  - Johnson in crisis situations
  - Johnson "in charge"

Vietnam

- Clark Clifford recommendation
- Efforts to limit Vietnam War
- Anti-war groups
- U.S. press
- State Department and speech writing
- Vice President Johnson involvement
- Kennedy policies concerning Southeast Asia
- Advisor's advice
- Global security treaty relevance
- Credibility and fidelity issue and importance
- U.S. strategic defensive position
- Gradual response policy
- Tonkin Gulf Resolution
- Johnson and Congress
- Peace initiatives
- Seaborne mission
- U.S. negotiating position
- U. Thant's involvement
- Adlai Stevenson
- Bombing North Vietnam
- South Vietnam weakness
- Kosygin's presence in Hanoi
- Soviet role in North Vietnam
- Bombing pauses
- Arthur Goldberg tour
- Ho Chi Minh
- George Ball and devil's advocate
- Civilian Americans and South Vietnamese
- Press obsession with bad news
- Washington-Hanoi channel
- Polish message to Hanoi

- Manila Conference
- Harriman mission
- Trang-John Guthrie channel (Moscow)
- Phase A-Phase B formula
- Harold Wilson-Kosygin exchange
- Johnson-Ho Chi Minh letter - 1967
- San Antonio formula
- Kissinger-Romanian channel
- South Vietnam elections
- Limitations on U.S. influence in U.S. government
- Glassboro meeting
- “Wise Men” meetings
- Tet Offensive
- Clark Clifford’s disillusionment
- Johnson announces partial bombing halt

Johnson decides not to run for another term

Vietnam Talks to end war

- Vance issue
- President’s objection to Paris as site
- Instructions and Harriman and Vance
- North Vietnamese attitude
- Bombing halt agreement
- Russian involvement
- South Vietnamese reluctance
- Madame Chennault
- Nixon briefings on situation

President Nixon carries on talks

The world after Vietnam

- Forces of Free Asia strengthened
- Militant Chinese communism
- Nuclear weapons threat

Vietnam - military vs. Political problems

- Coordinator in Washington
- War aims and peace aims
- Contacts with Hanoi
- Interdepartmental interests
- Ambassador and embassy role
- Guerrilla warfare
- Vietnamese armed force buildup
- “Vietnamization” and “Americanization”
- Casualties

Military tactics
Warsaw talks

U.S.-China relations

Steps to improve relations
Peking vs. Taiwan
Change in U.S. public attitude
British policy
Chinese intervention in Korea
Taiwan problem
China scholars' views
Chinese activity in Southeast Asia

Johnson and Laos

U.S.-Russian conversations
Geneva Conference - 1962
Hanoi uncooperative
U.S. Laos bombing program
Prince Souvanna Phouma
Hanoi's use of Laos for infiltration route
U.S.-Laos commitment

Johnson and Thailand

Southeast Asia Treaty member
SEATO treaty
U.S. obligations under treaty

Foreign reaction to U.S.-Vietnam War

No public criticism from those with troops in South Vietnam

Okinawa

Needed for security of free Asia
Discussions with Japan
Johnson involvement

Indonesia

Sukarno problem
Malaya confrontation
Change in Indonesia

Korea

President Park
Involvement in Vietnam
North Korean bellicosity
Pueblo incident
Russian mediating role

Regionalism in Asia concept

- Australia and New Zealand attitude
- Asian Development Bank
- Johnson support
- India food problem
- U.S. interests
- India-Pakistan feud.
- Tashkent

Latin America

- Alliance for Progress
- Congressional interest
- Johnson role
- Punta del Este meeting - 1967

Middle East

- 1967 Arab-Israeli War
- Soviet mischief
- Johnson role
- Strait of Tiran
- Jewish community and Democratic Party
- Russian interest
- Kosygin role
- Glassboro meeting
- Cease fire efforts
- Secretary General of the UN withdraws UN forces
- Nasser's role
- Four Power talks
- U.S. planes for Israel
- Johnson's five points - U.S. policy for Middle East
- November 1967 Resolution

Multilateral Force (MLF) issue

- NATO desire for greater participation
- Nuclear relevance
- Non-proliferation Treaty

NATO

- De Gaulle expels NATO headquarters
- Harmel Exercise
- European isolationism
- U.S. force levels
- Balance of payments issue
- German problem
- Gromyko and reunification

Johnson and Soviet Union
Soviets invade Czechoslovakia
SALT Talks
Europe and Vietnam War
Swedes favor Hanoi
Spanish base negotiations (non-NATO)
U.S. favors Spain in NATO

President Johnson and other issues

IMF
Kennedy Round Trade Negotiation
Committee of Ten
U.S.-French monetary issue
Africa
Congo troubles
Organization of African Unity
Arms to Africa
Rhodesia
South Africa
Regional foreign aid programs
Congressional interest
AID
Johnson interest in aid program

Rusk comments on problems and achievements

Avoidance of nuclear war
Treaties
Interracial problems
Developing U.S.-developed relations
Population control

Failure, crisis, and mistakes

Bay of Pigs - greatest mistake
Vietnam War - failure to end
Cuban Missile Crisis - greatest crisis

Comments and notes