

IRVING SABLOSKY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana
U.S. Army, World War II - prisoner of war
University of Indiana
Music critic, The Chicago Daily News	1947-1957
Washington, DC - USIA	1957-1958
American Music author
Selecting (music) records for posts abroad
Musical talent in U.S.
Library of Congress sources
Seoul, Korea - USIS Publications Officer	1958-1960
Composer (music) and author
The Strange Case of Mr. K. (Author)
Abraham Lincoln and American Democracy
Environment
Translation of U.S. policy statements
USAID
U.S. music
Korean symphony orchestras
Local press
Politics
North Korea
Cebu, Philippines - USIS - Branch Public Affairs Officer	1960-1963
Environment
U.S.-Philippine relations
Local press
Politics
Cultural programs
University of Chicago - American Studies	1963-1964
Washington, DC - German Language Training	1964-1965
Hamburg, Germany - USIS - Amerika Haus - Director	1965-1968
Environment
American studies
Music
Lecturers

Press Library Vietnam
Washington, DC - Assistant Editor, Dialogue Political, literary trends and the arts	1968-1969
Washington, DC - USIA - Policy and Plans Goals and trends Communism VOA	1969-1971
Bangkok, Thailand - USIS - Cultural Affairs Officer U.S. presence Programs Fulbright scholars Cultural events Thai culture	1971-1973
Washington, DC - USIA - German Desk Officer East Germany Library	1973
Washington, DC - USIA - European Area Officer VOA Policy Country plans	1973-1976
London, England - USIS - Cultural Affairs Officer American concert music American studies British press Queen's Jubilee U.S. VIP visitors	1976-1979
Washington, DC Death of wife Retirement	1979-1980
Recall - Lecturing throughout Europe Western music	1981