

AMBASSADOR NICHOLAS M. SALGO

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Budapest
Hungarian politics
Leaving Hungary in 1936
Switzerland	1936-1947
Settling in US	1947
Impression of Hungary from vantage of US
Watergate development
USIA	1981-1983
Expert on Central Europe
Balancing overzealous missionary tendencies
Ambassador to Hungary	1983-1986
Desire to be ambassador to Argentina
Appointment to Hungary
William Clark
Differentiating between satellite states
Contacts with Russians
Senator Pell
Poor briefing from State Department
Importance of contact with Janos Kadar
Telephone incident
USIA
Policy of superficial interest
Visit of politburo member to US
Popularity of Kadar
Stressing importance of economics in Hungary
Problems with US Marine guards
Micromanagement by Congress
Soviet influence	