

AMBASSADOR DOROTHY M. SAMPAS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Washington, DC and raised in Washington
University of Michigan
McCarthyism
Democratic politics
Ecole des Etudes Politiques in Paris - 1955-1956
Algeria problem in France
Georgetown University - Ph.D.
Foreign Service Exam
Entered Foreign Service - 1957

State Department - Public Service Division	1958-1960
Correspondence Branch
Congressional and private correspondence
The Ugly American influence
Hamburg, Germany - Consular Officer	1960-1962
Environment
Visa cases
Wriston Program
Marriage - Ottawa, Canada	1962-1964
Wife of Foreign Service officer (FSO) James Sampas
Canadian politics
Paris, France - with husband James Sampas	1964-1966
Dissertation preparation
Political environment
U.S. NATO mission
French suspicions of U.S.
French complications
Environment
Keflavik, Iceland - with husband	1966-1969
Environment
Cultural life
Climate
U.S. military
Ambassadors
Washington, DC - with husband	1969

Applied for reentry into Foreign Service - 1971

Entered Foreign Service A-11 course	1957
State Department - Public Service Division Correspondence Artukovic case	1958-1960
Hamburg, Germany - Visa Officer Refugee program McCarran-Walters Act GI marriages Environment Socialism Political tension Consul General E. Tomlin Bailey	1960-1962
Ottawa, Canada - Spouse of FSO James Sampas	1962-1964
Paris, France - Spouse of FSO James Sampas De Gaulle and NATO	1964-1965
Keflavik, Iceland - Spouse of FSO James Sampas Ambassador James Penfield NATO military base Environment Volcanologists American "invasion"	1966-1969
Washington, DC - with spouse	1969-1973
State Department - Reentered Foreign Service - Administration Computer country database John Thomas Computer section CIA and computers	1973
Brussels, Belgium - Joint Administration Embassy-NATO relations	1975-1979
State Department - Bureau of Personnel Computerization Job description inflation	1979-1986

Human Resources Division

National War College Observations Curriculum	1986-1987
Beijing, China - Administrative Minister-Counselor Staff Tiananmen Square Government Ambassador Winston Lord Dealing with Chinese Ambassador James Lilley Security Computers problem U.S. military	1987-1990
New York, New York - USUN - Administrative Officer Whistle-blower act Special housing program Five ambassadors' problems Security Presidential visits Helping other UN missions USUN-State relations Madeline Albright Problem solving	1990-1994
Mauritania - Ambassador Preparation for assignment Grievance problem Regional rivalries Moors Slavery Human rights Africare Security Hassaniya Arabic Environment Relations with neighbors Logistics Women Health Foreign assistance U.S. (non)assistance programs Foreign relations	1994-1997

President Maaouya Ould Sid' Ahmed Taya
Visitors
Health problem

Retirement

1997

Observations on Mauritania
Whither Mauritania
U.S. policies
U.S. assistance
AIDS