

EUGENE M. SCHAEFFER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Tennessee, raised in Tennessee and Mississippi
Rhodes College; Columbia University
US Coast Guard, World War II
Joined the Department of State in 1952

State Department: Committee Secretariat, Executive Secretariat 1952-1953
Bedell Smith
Operations
State Department relations with other Agencies
Post-War Economic Assistance

Educational Exchange Service (Formerly IES) 1954-1957
National Education Association (NEA)
American Federation of Teachers
World Confederation on Organizations of the Teaching Professions

United States Information Agency (USIA) 1957
Orientation

Rangoon, Burma; Assistant Cultural Affairs Officer 1957-1962
and /Branch Public Affairs Officer, Mandalay
British
WWII damage
Buddhism
Educational exchanges
Foreign representation
AID programs
US religions missions
Political situation
Chinese presence

New Delhi, India; Cultural Affairs Officer 1962-1964
Staff
Exchange of Person Program
US Educational Foundation in India
American Leaders and Specialist Program
Fulbright Program
British influence
Communist presence
Jacqueline Kennedy visit

Ambassador Galbraith Indo-Chinese relations Cultural programs
New Delhi, India; Deputy Director, US Educational Foundation Operations South Asia Program Personnel	1965-1967
University of Pennsylvania; Asian Studies Countries studied	1967-1968
International Cultural Service (ICS) Backstopping USIA educational and cultural activities	1968-1969
State Department, FSI: Hindi language training	1969
New Delhi, India; Deputy Cultural Officer Programs Educational exchange PL-480 funding Traveling exhibits Environment US Ambassadors	1970-1972
London, England: Deputy Cultural Affairs Officer Programs	1972-1974
US Information Agency; Information Service Informing US universities of USIA programs Fulbright Program	1974-1977
Tokyo, Japan; Regional Cultural Affairs Officer Regional responsibilities American Chambers of Commerce Local receptivity of programs	1977-1981
Lagos, Nigeria; Cultural Affairs Officer Environment Economy Government Programs	1981-1982
Washington, D.C.: Tri-Centennial Commission Celebrating 300 years of German settlement in America Observations re Commission	1982-1984

Accra, Ghana; Cultural Attaché
Working with Ghana Universities
Exchange Programs
Government
Environment
Trading partners
Gold
British
Comparison with Nigeria
Education
Ambassador Fritts
Cultural interests

1984-1986

Retirement

1986