

DAVID M. SCHOONOVER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Illinois
University of Illinois, Stanford University
U.S. Army
Foreign Agricultural Service	1961-1964
Crop and Trade Analyst
Soviet Union agriculture
Moscow, Soviet Union, Agriculture Analyst	1964-1967
Detail to American Embassy Moscow
Collective farm system
Environment
Travel
Security harassment
Agriculture
Khrushchev
Fairs and exhibitions
Anti-US demonstrations
Foreign embassies
Soviet agriculture training
Political climate
Department of Agriculture, Economic Research Service	1967-1977
Foreign agriculture developments
Communist bloc
Michigan State University study
Agriculture attaché reports
Soviet virgin lands
Soviet grain
Soviet feed-livestock economy
CIA interest
Foreign Agriculture Service, Managing Trade Policy Staff	1978-1980
Soviet grain task force
US-Soviet Cooperation Agreement
Japan trade policy
China trade
Secretary Bergland's China visit
Entered the U.S. Foreign Service	1984

State Department, FSI; Chinese language training	1984-1985
Beijing, China; Agriculture Counselor	1985-1989
American Ambassadors
Contacts with government
Travel
Scientific exchanges
Economy
Political and social unrest
Local Americans
Environment
Embassy buildings attack by military
Mongolia
Cooperative activity
USDA programs
Commodities
Trade policy and talks
Political re-indoctrination
Moscow, Soviet Union/Russia; Agriculture Minister-Counselor	1990-1994
Political atmosphere
Environment
Equipment and supplies shows
Commerce department cooperation
Credit guarantee agreement
Gorbachev
Embassy fire
VIP visits and delegations
Lithuania
Ukraine
Credit guarantee program
Decollectivization
Coups
Commodities
Former Soviet republics
Food aid programs
Non-government Organization (NGO) programs
New US embassies in republics
Foreign nationals
Exchange and study programs
USDA programs
Political environment
Collapse of Soviet Union
US advisors in Soviet ministries
Growing privatization

Soviet-US farm comparison
The new Russia
Demonstrations
Security
Religious services
State Department, FSI; Korean language training	1994-1995
Seoul, Korea; Agriculture Minister-Counselor	1995-1997
Environment
US exports to Korea
Phytosanitary (plant health)
Korean agriculture
Rice
North Korea food shortages
Office of the U.S. Trade Representative	1997-1998
Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation negotiations
United States Department of Agriculture	1998-1999
Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA)
Retirement	1999
Reykjavik, Iceland, Spouse of the American Ambassador	1999-2002
Agriculture
European Union	