

PETER O. SELLAR

CONTENTS

Career overview

Early Years and Education

Joined USAID in the Office of Management Planning and the Africa Bureau 1963

Assignment on the Tunisian Desk 1964

Transferred to USAID/Guinea as Program Officer 1966

Work with the Africa Bureau Loan Office 1968-1971

Joined the USAID's Office of Private and Voluntary Cooperation 1971

Assigned to the Office of Middle East Affairs as Special Deputy for Joint Commissions 1975

New assignment in the Office of Central American Affairs 1975

Transfer to the Near East Program Office 1976

Opportunities for training and field evaluations

Returned to the LAC Bureau in the Program Office and the Central American Initiative 1985

Assignment to work on democratic initiatives

Post USAID activity

Concluding observations

Annexes written by Peter O. Sellar [Available through CDIE]:

Annex A: "Operation Pride: A Proposed Program for Improved Local-level Planning and Execution of Integrated Rural Development." November, 1974.

Annex B: "Democratic Development Regional Strategy Framework for Latin America." May, 1991.

Annex C: “LAC/DI Assessments Handbook for Use in Preparing Country Democratic Development Sectoral and Sub-Sectoral Assessments and Strategies.” November, 1992.

Annex D: “A Proposed Strategy for Supporting Democratic Stability in the Commonwealth Caribbean.” with Raymond Gastil, December, 1991.

Annex E: “Strengthening Democracy in Latin America and the Caribbean: USAID’s Experience to Date and Plans for the Future.” A Presentation to the Development Assistance Committee of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. November, 1990.

Annex F: “The Development of UNAID’s Democracy Program: Issues and Problems Encountered (1985-1994)” April 1994.