

WALTER J. SHERWIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Overview of USAID career

Early years and education

Joined ICA as a management intern in the Personnel Office 1959

Transferred to the Africa Bureau and West Africa programs 1961

Joined USAID Foreign Service and assigned to Upper Volta (Burkina Faso) 1965

Transfer to Madagascar 1967

Assignment in Senegal 1969

Attended the economic course at the Foreign Service Institute and served as economist and program analyst in the Supporting Assistance Bureau 1970-1971

Attended the Development Studies Program 1976

Assigned as Program Officer in USAID/Niger 1977

Transferred to Guinea as AID Affairs Officer 1979

Returned to USAID/Washington Africa Bureau, Office of Regional Affairs 1982

Assignments since retiring in 1987

Concluding observations

KEY WORDS

African Manpower Development Program
Agricultural extension and research programs
Benin (Dahomey)
Burkina Faso (Upper Volta)
Congressional presentations
Development Studies Program
Education programs
English language training

Environment programs
Food for Peace Public Law 480
Gambia
Guinea
Health programs
Korry Report
Liberia
Livestock programs
Logical framework analysis
Madagascar
Mali
Niger
Office of Regional Affairs/Africa Bureau
Philippines
Population/family planning programs
Project design and evaluation
Regional USAID for Africa/Washington
Regional projects
Rural development programs
Sahel Development Program
Senegal
Sierra Leone
Supporting Assistance
Togo