

JOHN W. SHIRLEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years in Yugoslavia and Hungary during WWII Nazi Occupation
Zagreb – USIA JOT	1957-1959
Belgrade Assistant Cultural Affairs Officer	1959
Trieste 1960 Assistant Branch PAO Branch PAO Bi-national centers
Rome Press Attaché Reaction to Kennedy Assassination USIS Activities Role of USIS in promoting “Opening to the Left”	1963
New Delhi Press Attaché Baptism of Fire: Outbreak of Indo-Pakistan War Relationship with Ambassador Chester Bowles Indian Tendency to Moralize and Criticize America Effectiveness and values of USIS Indian program Stalin’s daughter, Svetlana Alliluyeva	1965
Washington, DC Various positions in Near East South Asia Area Office	1969
Poland 1970 PAO Value of USIS/VOA work in Poland
Washington, DC Deputy Area Director for Eastern Europe Area Director Director of Recombines East and West Europe	1971

Italy	1976
PAO
USIS blocks US support for Communist Participation in Gov.
PAO as political counselor
Washington, DC	1980
Associate Director for Programs
Acting Director of USIA
Charles Wick
Politicization of USIA
Need for restructuring
Agency Deputy Director and Interim
Diplomat-In-Residence – Wesleyan University	1983
Ambassador to Tanzania	1983
Experiences	