

ASSISTANT SECRETARY GASTON J. SIGUR, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Early education
Army
Advanced education
Years in Japan	1956-1961
Impressions of Japan
Sophia University
Asia Foundation	1962-1966
Efforts in Japan and Afghanistan
NSC	1982-1986
Appointment as Asian affairs head
Communiqué with China
President's involvement
Provisions
Results
Judge Clark as national security advisor
Type of people in NSC
Cooperation with other departments
Way of getting around bureaucratic slowness
Respect for career people in government
Commitment to strengthen US-Japan relationship
Role as emissary between leaders of US and Japan
Japanese response to American resentment
Japanese military
Development of Korean economy
Authoritarian nature of Chun Doo Hwan
US position: civilianization of government
Student riots
Intent of visit to South Korea
North Korea
Assistant Secretary, EAP	1986-1989
Appointment
Impressions of EAP
Working relationship with other agencies
China and Taiwan
Intent of communiqué
Taiwan Relations Act

Opposition to communiqué from Congress
President and communiqué
Opposition against sale of high-technology
Visits to China from Cabinet
Taiwan feeling reassured
Message to Chinese
Proceeding arrangements
Human rights in Tibet
Breakfast with congressmen and senators
Working relationship with Congress
Key players in Congress
George Shultz
Trust of department professionals
Philippines
American goal
Marcos' losing touch with reality
Trip to Japan
President Aquino
Importance of bases
Vietnam
American position
Chinese support of Khmer Rouge
Japan
Importance of US-Japan relationship