

CONSUL GENERAL SMITH SIMPSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born, Alexandria, VA	1906
University of Virginia	1923-1927
Cornell University Law School	1927-1930
Fellowship at Columbia University	1930-1931
Research Asst. with James T. Shotwell	1931-1932
Initial Labor Involvement
International Labor Office, Geneva	1933
Special Labor Advisor, NRA	1933-1935
Advisor on Code of Fair Competition (The Asphalt, Shingle, and Roofing Industry)
Faculty at Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania
Co-Drafter, Pennsylvania Unemployment and Compensation Act
Governor's Comm. on Unemployment & Unemployment Relief, Pennsylvania
World War II
War Shipping Administration
"Liberty Ships"
Department of State
Labor Attache Program
Brussels, Belgium	1945-1947
First Secretary and Labor Attache
Athens, Greece	1947-1949
Labor Attache
Mexico City, Mexico	1949-1952
First Secretary and Labor Attache
Bombay, India	1952-1954
Political Officer
Lourenço Marques	1954-1957
Consul General
Department of Labor	1957-1959
Anatomy of the State Department
Foreign Service Board of Examiners
Views on the quality of Foreign Service Officers

Bureau of Management
Instruction on diplomacy
The Crisis in American Diplomacy (1980)

1964-1965