

DEREK S. SINGER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Overview of career
Early years and education
Worked for CARE in Colombia and then Bolivia	1954
Recruited by ICA for assignment in Taiwan	1956
Transfer to ICA in Costa Rica	1958
Transferred to the ICA mission in Congo/Kinshasa (Leopoldville)	1960
Joined the Peace Corps at its creation
First Peace Corps Director in Bolivia	1962-1964
Transferred to Peace Corps in Indonesia	1964
Back to Peace Corps Washington and then as Director, Peace Corps Tunisia	1964-1966
Worked in the private sector: domestic and international programs	1966
An assignment with the United Nations in Senegal	1972
An assignment with U.S. public TV and education programs	1973-1980
Rehired by USAID and returned to Zaire	1980
Returned to USAID/Washington's staff training program	1984
New assignment as Chief, Human Resources Development in USAID/Kenya	1985-1989
Transferred to USAID/Ecuador	1989-1991
The last USAID tour in USAID/Cameroon	1991-1994
Retired from USAID and undertook consultancies	1994-1997
Burundi
Democracy Governance
Haiti

Concluding observations

KEY WORDS

Bolivia
Burundi
Cameroon
CARE
China
Colombia
Congo (Brazzaville)
Costa Rica
Democracy and governance programs
Ecuador
Education and training programs
English language training
Food assistance
Haiti
Health and family planning programs
Human rights programs
Humanitarian relief
Illegal drug control
Indonesia
Japan
Kenya
Micro enterprise
Participant training
Peace Corps
PL 480 Title II
Private Voluntary Agencies
Public Administration
School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS)
Senegal
Staff training in USAID
Taiwan
Title IX - political development
Tunisia
United Nations
Women in development
Zaire (Congo)