

KENNETH N. SKOUG

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Fargo, North Dakota; raised in Minnesota
Columbia College, New York City, George Washington University
U.S. Army
Entered Foreign Service - 1957

State Department - Office of Security 1957-1959
Latin America security cases
Castro

State Department - European Bureau - German Desk Officer 1959
Geneva Conference

Munich, Germany - Political Officer 1959-1961
Niemuller
Wife Martha
Personalities

Guadalajara, Mexico - Consular Officer 1961-1963
Environment
Protection and welfare cases
Government
Economy

New York, New York - UN General Assembly (USUN) 1963-1965
China
Germany
French
Indochina border
UN voting
Hallstein Doctrine

FSI - Czech Language Training 1965-1966

FSI - Economic Training 1966-1967

Prague, Czechoslovakia - Commercial/Economic Officer 1967-1969
Security
Economy
Industrial production
“Prague Spring”

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Politics Charles Jordan case Russians (Soviets) Relations Leaders Brezhnev Doctrine Soviet invasion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - European Bureau - German Affairs “Grand Coalition” Kissinger Gary Powers German politics Berlin Quadripartite Agreement (Protocol) CIA East Germany Helsinki Accords 	1969-1973
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> National War College John McCain 	1973-1974
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - Inspection Corps Efficiency reports Human rights 	1974-1976
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Moscow, USSR - Economic Counselor Russian transmitters Environment Jewish refuseniks Military Economy U.S. ambassadors COCOM Human rights Baltic states Gromyko Vance visit Korean plane shooting Crawford case Business relations Security Armenia KGB Embassy life 	1976-1979

Caracas, Venezuela - Economic/Commercial Officer	1979-1982
Politics
Oil
Territorial disputes
Falklands
Environment
Economy
State Department - Cuban Affairs	1982-1988
Cuban-Americans
Soviets
Refugees
Mariel excludables
Radio Marti
Hijackers
Grenada
Jesse Jackson
Embargo
Castro
Che Guevara
Angola
“Excludables” negotiations
U.S. interests section
Nicaragua
Pan-American Games
Supply flights
Human rights
Relations
Panama
Cubans in Africa
Sugar
Military
Popular sentiments about the U.S.
Congressional views
Expropriated U.S. interests
Regan policy
Caracas, Venezuela - Deputy Chief of Mission (Chargé)	1988-1990
Economy
Carlos Andrés Pérez
Cuba
Narcotics
“Chicago Boys”
Revolutionaries
Security
Oil production

Politics
Panama
Quayle visits
Awards

Retirement – Author