

SIDNEY SOBER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Foreign Service of 1947
Tananarive, Madagascar	1947-1949
Two man post
Political situation
French colonialism
Prague, Czechoslovakia	1949-1950
Consular officer
Ellis Briggs as ambassador
Cold War effect
Iceland	1950-1952
Political officer and Charge
Reactivation of Keflavik airabase
Political situation
Ankara, Turkey	1953-1956
Economic officer
Avra Warren as ambassador
NATO and Turkey
AID mission
Turkish financial problems
Menderes government
Turkish attitude towards Greece
INR	1956-1960
Wristonization
Economics of Japan and Korea
South Asia (Pakistan and India)
Eisenhower policy towards South Asia
Baghdad Pact
Nehru
Dulles and India
Iraq 1958 Revolution
CENTO
Bombay	1960-1963
Economic officer
Kenneth Galbraith

Goa takeover
Chinese-Indian War of 1962
Kennedy and India
Bureau of Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs	1964-1969
Deputy Director
AID program
U.S. interests in South Asia
Arabists and Israel
Arab-Israel 1967 War
Greek situation
Rawalpindi, Pakistan	1969-1973
Deputy Chief of Mission
Aftermath of 1965 Indo-Pak war
Political Situation
View of East Pakistan
Reporting from Dacca
Pakistan Civil War and with India	1971
Archer Blood and dissent
Kissinger and opening to China
Mujib
Relations with Bhutto
Bureau of Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs	1974-1976
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Kissinger
Conclusion
Bhutto and Pakistani Constitution	