

AMBASSADOR RONALD I. SPIERS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Islamabad, Pakistan	1981-1983
Under Secretary for Management	1983-1989
Secretary Shultz/s “management team”
Foreign Service Act of 1980
Management Council
Senior officer “glut”
Accent on management in Foreign Service
Director of OMB, Stockman
Spouse employment problem
Political appointees
Importance of having good ambassadors
Relations with White House staff
Relations with Congress
House Appropriations Committee
Chairman Neil Smith
Senate Foreign Relations Committee
Senator Jesse Helms and his staff
Proliferation of assistant secretaries
Senator Lugar
Relations with other agencies (AID, USIA)
CIA
Moscow Embassy
Rep. Olympia snow
Security problems in Moscow
Spouse issue
Societal changes
Spouses not employees
Less discipline in personnel
American Foreign Service Association
Development of adversarial relationship with Foreign Service
Personnel problems
“Up or Out” concept
1980 Act
Promotion system
“Cone” system
Role of the Foreign Service

Importance of ambassadors
Presidential styles
Importance of embassy staff
Closing posts

Women in the Foreign Service
Roz Ridgeway

Blacks in the Foreign Service
Philosophy

Assignment process
DCM program

Foreign Service Institute

Background
Raised and schooled in U.S. and abroad
Princeton, Harvard
U.S. Navy, World War II
Atomic Energy Commission
Liaison with State Department

Nuclear Affairs, Department of State 1955-1966
IAEA (International Atomic Energy Agency)
Special assistant to Secretary Dulles
Commission to evaluate effects of atomic radiation
Harold Stassen
Test Ban discussions 1958
Arms control and disarmament issues
ACDA
MIR V testing
Nuclear free zones
State-Defense relationship
Security Assistance Program Review Committee
De Gaulle and NATO
MLF issue

London, Great Britain 1966-1969
Counselor – Political-Military Affairs
NATO Nuclear Planning Group
Nixon visit to London
Diego Garcia

Political-Military Affairs 1969-1973
Director

Soviet Union negotiations – SALT Kissinger ABM Treaty State Department and disarmament Secretary of State Rogers Eliot Richardson
Bahamas Ambassador U.S. military bases	1973-1974
London, Great Britain Chargé and Minister Ambassador Ann Richardson Economic issues President Carter's visit Embassy staffing Wayne Hays Joan Auten	1974-1977
Ankara, Turkey Ambassador Cyprus problem Internal politics Congressional visits U.S. embargo lifted Military assistance Social structure Terrorism/security Base agreement	1977-1980
INR Director Intelligence operations INR's reputation Secretary Haig	1980-1981
Islamabad, Pakistan Ambassador Nuclear program U.S. - Pakistan relations Prime Minister Zia Soviets and Afghanistan Economic support program AID mission The Mujahideen	1981-1983

Chinese role