

AMBASSADOR WELLS STABLER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Boston, Massachusetts; Raised in the U.S. and abroad
Harvard University
Entered Foreign Service

State Department - Inter American Affairs 1941-1943

Ecuadoran desk officer
Nelson Rockefeller involvement
Axis South American strongholds
Sumner Wells
Cordell Hull
Wartime "black lists"

Post-War Programs Committee - Assistant Secretary 1944

Political vs. economic discussions
Secretary of State Stettinius
Policy for post-war Europe and Asia

Jerusalem - Vice Consul 1944-1948

Getting there
Wartime Jerusalem
Environment
Jews and Arabs "truce"
King David Hotel explosion and aftermath
Consulate jurisdiction
Visit to Emir Abdullah
Consul General Pinkerton
Anglo-American Committee of Inquiry
Operations and duties
Terrorism
British Arab sympathies
OSS advisor
UNGA Partition Resolution
British withdrawal - 1948
Consulate guard detachment
State unresponsive to needs
Consul General Tom Wasson killed
Political reporting
Zionists
U.S. recognition of Israel
Partition Plan - 1947

Arab-Israel war in Jerusalem Consular casualties Count Bernadotte - UN Mediator
Amman, Jordan - American Representative - Chargé d'Affaires King Abdullah Sir Alec Kirkbride U.S. recognition of Jordan "Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan" Jordan-British relations	1948-1949
UN Trustee Council - U.S. Representative Internationalization of Jerusalem issue	1950
State Department - Bureau of Near East Affairs Middle East Defense Organization (MEDO) Egypt-British relations (bases) Secretary of State Dean Acheson Jordan visit King Farouk's departure Joint (U.S.-U.K.) assessment of Egypt The Colonels (Egyptian) Nasser	1950-1953
Rome, Italy - Political Officer Contact development Political parties Offshore procurement Communists and Soviet Union President Gronchi meeting Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce Nixon visit U.S.-Italy military cooperation Lead poison affair	1953-1957
State Department - Egyptian Affairs	1957-1958
State Department - Swiss/Benelux Affairs	1958
State Department - Italian/Austrian Affairs South Tirol San Marino	1959-1960
Paris, France - Political Officer De Gaulle and Gaullists Ambassador General Gavin	1960-1965

Ambassador Chip Bohlen
Contacts with officials
CIA presence
Ambassador Amory Houghton
Kennedy assassination - French response
U.S.-French relations
"Algerie francaise"
Generals' Revolt
Cuban Missile Crisis
French politicians
Divisions in embassy
Meeting De Gaulle
Communist Party
Leader Grant Program

State Department - Senior Seminar 1965-1966

State Department - Italy, Austria, Switzerland Director 1966-1969
Italian Communist Party
U.S. bases (Italy)
Swiss relations

Rome, Italy - Deputy Chief of Mission 1969-1973
President Johnson visit
Ambassador Gardner Ackley
Ambassador Graham Martin
Political parties
CIA program
Prime Minister Andreotti
U.S. policy
Working with Ambassador Martin
Embassy staff
Martin and Kissinger
Communist China issue
U.S. consulates

State Department - Deputy Assistant Secretary - European Affairs 1973-1975
Portuguese Revolution
Kissinger's policies
Ambassador Frank Carlucci
GTI moves to Bureau of European Affairs
Cyprus issue
Greek generals' coup
Turkey arms embargo
Ambassador to Greece Tasca
Ambassador Rodger Davies killed

Turks occupy North Cyprus
Kissinger involvement
Common Market

Ambassador to Spain

1975-1978

Nomination problems
Military "facilities" agreement negotiations
President Ford visit
Mondale visit
King Juan Carlos
U.S.-Spanish Treaty
NATO
Franco regime
Robert McCloskey
Green March in Morocco
Franco death
"Critic" message
"King's Day"
Spanish politics
Arias Navarro
Adolfo Suarez
Communist Party
CIA role
Embassy personnel
Basque separatists
Senator Frank Church visit
Social structure
Aileen Romanones
Socialist government

Retirement

October 15, 1978