

AMBASSADOR MICHAEL E. STERNER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Harvard
ARAMCO
ARAMCO as a force in US-Arab relations
Army service
Foreign Service training
Aden	1957-1958
Vice Consul
Situation in Aden
Arab nationalism
Communist role
Beirut	1958-1960
Arabic training
Situation in Beirut
Dealings with Palestinians
View of Arab-Israeli conflict
Cairo	1960-1964
Duties in Cairo
Staffing problems
Internal politics in Egypt
Nasser
US Egypt policy
NEA – Arab-Israeli Desk	1964-1966
View from Washington
Kennedy policy on Arab-Israeli issue
Problems with Johnson’s pro-Israel policy
1967 War
US policy
NEA – Egypt	1970-1974
Country director
Anwar Sadat
Accession of Sadat
Diplomatic relations with Egypt
Israeli role
Kissinger’s policy
SAM II dispute

Joseph Sisco
1973 War

Ambassador to United Arab Emirates	1974-1976
Origin of appointment
Situation in UAE
Federation system
US business interests in the UAE

NEA	1976-1979
Deputy assistant secretary in NEA
Role in Camp David process
View of Israel
Menachem Begin
Assessment of Carter
Establishment of peacekeeping forces

Conclusion

- Retirement
- The Foreign Service today
- The future of the Foreign Service