

AMBASSADOR THOMAS F. STROOCK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Yale University - 1948
- Stanolind Oil and Gas Company - 1948-1952
- Started own oil and gas business, Wyoming
- Local and state school boards
- State senate
- Vice-president of senate
- Wyoming Republican State Chairman
- Chairman, Western States Republican Organization
- Friendship with George Bush, "Poppy"
- George Bush's campaign for President, 1980 & 1988
- Spanish language skills
- Nomination as US Ambassador to Guatemala
- Interest in American history
- US Embassy in Guatemala
- Personal management style
- US Marine Corps - 1943-1945
- "Charm School"
- Jesse Helms
- Confirmation process

Guatemala

1989-1992

- Ambassador
- US interests in Guatemala
- Guerilla War
- "los Cuatros D's"
- War on drugs
- Extradition of people involved in drug trade
- Consul general Sue Patterson
- Democracy
- President Vinicio Cerezo
- Jorge Serrano
- Jorge Carpio
- Arturo Herbrugger
- Serrano's efforts to become a dictator
- Shallow quality of democracy in Guatemala
- US AID program
- Peace Corp
- Human Rights
- Murder of twelve university students - 1989
- Deaths and Guerilla War

Land distribution
Population control
Power of the army
Murdering and torturing street children
Rotary club in Guatemala
Cerezo's refusal to believe content of speech
Decline in human rights violations
Michael Devine Case - 1990
Military aid to Guatemala stopped
Human rights and drug interdiction, mixed signals