

WILLIS J. SUTTER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

First Overseas Assignment: Thailand	1966
Assigned to field post at Nakon Phanom
Thai Government fighting insurgency function of field posts at that time
Thai Government services performed during USIS assisted village visits
The appeal to villagers of USIS assists Lao Dialect Radio Station
The insurgent Defector who never shot at Sutter
Estimate value of USIS assisted village visits
Changes in Thai village life today
Moscow, Russia	1973-1975
Washington then Kinshasa and Mauritania	1975-1981
PAO in Vientiane, Laos	1976-1977
Sutter's personal policies for Foreign Service work Individual officers up to threshold of senior rank should be specialists Sutter can accept new role allotted to spouses in his own case, but is puzzled as to solution of marital problems under new system generally
General Summation of what Sutter thinks a USIA career is all about Reminiscences about incidents in Laos
Communist Pathet Lao listened to VOA and avidly read USIS info bulletins
Retrospective comments on Zaire (Kinshasa) Nature of USIS program The Great, but largely unused, potential of Zaire
Mauritania compares badly with Zaire in potential
Key to establishing contacts with Moors

Second Tour in Thailand 1984-1986

Contrast between USIS program and status of country development, Thailand
Mid 80's 1960's

Personal evaluation of USIS contribution to Thai progress

In retirement
Evaluation of USIA 1987 vs. USIA 1966