

AMBASSADOR HARRISON M. SYMMES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
World War II service
Changes in Foreign Service following World War II
Alexandria, Egypt	1947-1949
Working as a Junior Vice Consul
Living conditions
Damascus, Syria	1949-1952
Syrian-Israeli animosities and Syrian coups
Responsibilities as a political officer
Anti-Semitism
Islam's relations to communism
McCarthyism
Foreign Service Arabists
Kuwait	1953-1955
Living conditions and U.S. interests in Kuwait
British presence in Kuwait
Washington, D.C.	1955-1959
CIA activities
Tripoli, Libya	1959-1962
U.S. Wheelus Air Force Base
Political situation
Washington, D.C.	1963-1966
Arab-Israeli relations
Working for Rodgers Davies
Policies toward Near East
Arms sales to Middle East
Strength of Israeli Lobby
Political reporting from Lebanon
Mid-career Personnel System
Jordan	1967-1970
Post 1967 War
King Hussein
Fedayeen terrorist activity
Joe Sisco

Protests against U.S embassy
Persona Non Grata and the return to Washington
Deputy Inspector General

Conclusion