

JAMES E. TAYLOR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Oklahoma and Los Angeles
University of Southern California
US Air Force - SAC
Cuban missile crisis
Entered Foreign Service - 1965

Teheran, Iran 1965-1967

Local political situation
The Shah
Khomeini
Ambassador Armin Meyer

State Department - INR - Iran 1967-1970

Shah's military requests
US arms to Middle East
Arab-Israel 1967 war

Munich, Germany - Consular officer 1970-1973

Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany - Russian language 1973-1974

Moscow, USSR - Publications procurement/political officer 1974-1976

Kissinger visits
Soviet agriculture
Soviet surveillance
Soviet publications
Embassy operations
Soviet external ambitions
Soviets and Middle East
Anecdotes

State Department - FSI - language training 1976-1977

Kabul, Afghanistan - Political officer 1977-1980

AID programs
Muhammad Daud
Soviet activity
American Center (USIS)
Afghan military
Coup d'etat

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Disintegration of central government New leftist government Anti-US, anti-West Ambassador Spike Dubs' murder scenario Assassination aftermath AID and Peace Corps withdrawn Growing resistance to government Soviet role Other embassies' views Peace Corps "Embassies Under Siege" Mujahidin attack Herat Hafizullah Amin Soviets invade Afghan Radio Reporting to Washington Brezhnev Doctrine implications? President Carter reaction to invasion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - Operations Center China invades Vietnam Iran hostage rescue attempt Duties as watch officer 	1980-1981
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - Political/Military Affairs Egypt and Israel arms assistance Israel invades Lebanon Sabra and Shatila coup massacres Israelis use US "cluster" munitions Israeli support in US government Pollard spy case Working in Israel Personalities in Political/Military Affairs 	1981-1984
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tel Aviv, Israel - Political/Military officer Liaison with Israeli Defense forces Relations with regional US embassies Ambassador Sam Lewis Ambassador Tom Pickering Congressional visits Israeli military Minister of Defense Sharon Terrorism 	1984-1988
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State Department - INR - Afghanistan Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan Growing opposition to war in USSR 	1988-1989

Information sources
Divided Afghanistan (post-Soviet)
Gorbachev's unpopularity