

AMBASSADOR HARRY E.T. THAYER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Philadelphia, Haverford, Yale
U.S. Navy

Early career

Alaska Airlines, copyboy for Newsweek, Philadelphia Bulletin
Foreign Service exam, entered Sept. 1956
Interest in China

Hong Kong

1957-1959

Visa work
Anti-fraud campaign, Macao riots
China Hands

EA Bureau

1959-1961

Post management officer
Chinese language training
Vice President Johnson's round the world trip (1961)

Taipei, Taiwan

1963-1966

Economic/Commercial officer
Textile agreement with Japan
PL-480 agreement
Book piracy problem
Political officer
Taiwan political scene
U.S. attitude towards Taiwan regime
U.S attitude towards Red China

Taiwan desk

1966-1970

Deputy director PRC affairs
Vietnam influence

National War College

1970-1971

United Nations

1971-1975

China representation. problem
Security Council seat
Japanese attitude towards China
Effect of Kissinger's visit to Beijing
Two-China policy

Bush as ambassador and USUN official
Communist Chinese delegation to UN
Korean issue, Cambodia
John Scali, Daniel Moynihan
Reduction of U.S. contribution to UN

Capture of U.S. contribution to UN

Beijing, China 1975-1976
Deputy Chief of Mission to George Bush
“Gang of Four” period
Amb. Bush’s relations with Chinese
Kissinger visits
Death of Mao (1976)
Deng visit to U.S.
Charge- daily routine
Ex-President Nixon visit to China
Ambassador gates
Reasons for change in U.S. China relationships

EA, Chinese Affairs 1976-1980
Director for Chinese Affairs
Carter Administration and China
NSC staff problems
Taiwan Relations Act
Kissinger Secrecy
Relations with Congress
President Carter active in China policy