

EDWARD J. THRASHER
Memoirs

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Prologue
Clerk-stenographer-War Department
Chapter 1-Journey
Moscow
Clerk, Military Attaché Officer
Chapter II-Moscow USSR	1938-1939
Military Attaché Office
Environment
Foreign Service-embassy life
Chapter III –Warsaw, Poland	1939
Military Attaché Office
Historic Background
Embassy routine
Environment
Chapter IV-Chrysalis
Family background
Being raised in Washington, DC
American University and University of Maryland
Chapter V –Bucharest, Romania	1939
Live in Bucharest
Chapter VI –Invasion	1939
Mobilizations, frontiers closed
Germany attacks Poland
Air raids
Warsaw embassy evacuated
Chapter VII-Budapest, Hungary	1939-1940
Environment
Jewish problems
Return to U.S.
Chapter VIII-Voyage
The telephone in wartime

Chapter IX –Pretoria, South Africa	1941-1944
Paul Kruger and historical background
Local environment
South Africa in wartime
Drafted
Marriage
Chapter X-Convoy
Return to U.S.
Chapter XI- Aux Arms
U.S. Navy, March 1, 1945
German and Japanese surrender
Foreign Service officer
Foreign Service reorganization
Chapter XII-Bern, Switzerland	1949-1951
Commercial section
History
Embassy and environment
Travel
Chapter XIII –Interim
Foreign Service Institute
Chapter XIV-Haifa, Israel	1952-1953
Visa officer
Environment and life
Travel
Chapter XVI- Trip
Chapter XVII-Passage to Manila, Philippines	1954-1956
Commercial affairs and trade
Life in Manila
Filipinos
Descriptions
Chapter XVIII-Colombia University
Chapter XIX-Ottawa, Canada	1957-1960
Economic officer
Duties
Description
Life in Canada

Chapter XX-Home Leave

Crossing the U.S. by auto

Chapter XI –Far East Division-Indonesia and Malaya

1960-1964

Visiting dignitaries

South Pacific Commission

FSO murdered

Chapter XXII-Vientiane, Laos

1964-1967

Economic officer

Description

Living environment

AID program

Abortive “Invasion”

“Rocket” Day

Floods

To South Africa

Chapter XXIII End of Career, Start of Career

Retirement