

MARGARET JOY TIBBETTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early life and education

Department – Canadian Desk

London – political officer

Frances Willis

Senator McCarthy's investigators

Leopoldville – economic advisor

Reporting

Quality of officers in Africa

Contacts

Brussels – Chief political officer

Language in Belgian politics

Oslo – Appointment as Ambassador

Selection

Resentment by other women

Hearings and swearing-in

Language training

Travel to post

Presentation of credentials

Oslo – Post Matters

Views on duties of ambassador

Staff changes

DCM

Personnel problems

Country team

Training for officers

Wives

Oslo – Ambassador's contacts

King

Cabinet ministers

Local businessmen

Soviet Ambassador

Foreign office

Entertainment

Contacts reserved to ambassador

Goldfish Bowl Existence

Oslo- operations

- Problems
- Managerial qualities
- Inspectors
- Terrorism
- Anti-Americanism because of Vietnam
- Other agencies
- Health facilities
- Fourth of July reception

Comments: Women's issues

- Attitude toward women's movement
- Use of women's issues by others
- Criticism of special women's awards
- Use of the title "Madam Ambassador"

Comment: Women as Diplomats

- Advantages to being a woman
- Disservices to being a woman
- Problems unique to women
- Future prospects

Comments: Diplomacy

- Position as political officer
- United Nations
- Legacy of McCarthy period
- Change of administrations
- State's relations with other agencies
- Problem solving: dept. v. overseas posts
- Nature of negotiations
- Assignments at Home or Abroad
- Screening of ambassadorial candidates
- Ambassador Katherine White

Post Embassy Life

- Adjustment unnecessary
- Deputy assistant secretary for EUR