

AMBASSADOR MALCOLM TOON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Childhood and World War II experience
- Khrushchev and Kennedy

Israel

1975-1976

- Appointment
- Kissinger's policy towards Israel
- Press conferences
- Menachem Begin
- Top Israeli Officials
- U.S. attitude towards Middle East

Moscow

1976-1979

- Problems with appointment
- Carter's decision to keep Toon as ambassador
- Brzezinski and Vance
- Brezhnev
- U.S.-Soviet relations
- George Kennan
- Thomas Watson's appointment

Conclusion

- Accomplishments
- Foreign Service as a career