

AMBASSADOR WILLIAM C. TRIMBLE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Youth in Baltimore
Princeton
Foreign service entrance
Seville	1931-1932
Problem of travel expenses
Enthusiasm in Foreign Service
American outlook on the world during Hoover
Buenos Aires	1933-1936
US interests in Argentina
British influence
The Good Neighbor policy in action
Impression of Argentine government
Tallinn, Estonia	1936-1938
Arthur Bliss Lane as Baltic ambassador
US interests in Baltics
Nature of post
Antagonism toward Stalin
Ambassador Davies
Paris	1939-1940
Consular office
US information on Jewish massacre
Efforts to get Jews out of Europe
Start of war and evacuation of Americans
Feeling of immanence of war
Reaction to start of war
Refugees from Nazi occupation
Occupation of Paris
Transfer to Vichy
Robert Murphy
Dealing with Nazis
Situation at Vichy
France during German occupation
Mexico City	1940-1941
Ambassador Daniels and desire to keep embassy small
President Cardenas

Reaction against PEMEX Work on Mexican trade
Northern European Affairs Impression of James Dunn US policy toward Sweden Attitude towards Finland Suspicion of Soviets	1944-1946
Reykjavik Charge Postwar situation in Iceland Withdrawal of military forces Dealings with Icelandic government	1946-1948
London German affair Reporting on British domestic policies Intra-European relations Ernest Bevin Reasons for Britain's slow postwar recovery	1948-1951
The Hague Charge Situation in Holland Main issues at The Hague The Dutch and Decolonization NATO relations	1951-1954
Rio de Janeiro Minister – Counselor/DCM Origin of assignment Ambassador Kemper	1954-1956
Bonn DCM Situation in Germany Eleanor Dulles Wristonization program Removing the American occupation structure Konrad Adenauer Dealing with German politicians Evaluation of the Soviet threat to Germany Ambassador Bruce	1956-1959
Ambassador to Cambodia	1959-1962

Origin of appointment
Situation in Cambodia
Impressions of Sihanouk
Cambodian relations with the PRC
US policy toward Cambodia
Importance of Laos
Role of the CIA
Sihanouk and Eisenhower
Aid program in Cambodia

Deputy Assistant Secretary in AF

1962-1968

Soapy Williams
Wayne Fredericks
US policy toward Africa
Concern over communism in Africa