

HANS N. TUCH

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Tuch's Early Experience with Voice of America: Munich	1957
VOA Begins Changing Character of its Broadcasts to USSR and East Europe
Trials of Tuch as Policy Officer: Radio Munich
Departure from Munich- Moscow Assignment
Various Relationships to VOA While in other Assignments
Circumstances of Tuch's Return to VOA as Deputy Director
First Day on Job Crisis: Threatened Firing VOA News Chief, Bernie Kameske
VOA Director Ken Giddens Fails to Resign when Administration Comes In Is Finally Removed April, 1977
New VOA Director, R. Peter Straus, Not Interested In Actual VOA Management
Difficulty with VOA Engineering Department
Problem of Outside Meddling In VOA Broadcast Policy
Chalmers Roberts Report Results In Charge of Status of VOA Reporting Abroad
Origin of VOA News "Commentaries" (Editorials)
Reminiscences: Highlight of Period as VOA Deputy Deputy and Acting Director Opportunity to Serve As Acting Director Tehran Hostage Crisis Updating Language Broadcast Priorities and Upgrading Transmitter Facilities Personnel Problems	