

AMBASSADOR JOHN W. TUTHILL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Harvard and early career
Foreign Service interviews
Assignments in Europe during WWII
Potsdam conference
Working for Mutual Security/Marshall Plan
Minister of Economic Affairs, Paris 1956-1959
Negotiating OECD
Eisenhower administration and European unity
OEEC c. OECD

Ambassador to OECD 1960-1962

Secretary of state Dean Rusk's area of expertise
Political wavering on commitment to Berlin
Duties of ambassador to OECD
Chicken wars
Issues as ambassador to European community
Reason for appointment
Comparing Paris and Brussels posts
American staff in OECD and European involvement in Vietnam
President Johnson and administration's policies

Ambassador to Brazil 1966-1969

Embassy staff
President Castillo Bronco
Relations with newspaper editor, Carlos Lacerda
Role of US embassy in Brazil
Operation Topsy: budget cuts
Military attaché Vernon Walters
US effect on Brazil's government
US attitude towards Brazil
Brazil's support of new nations
Killing of American officer in Sao Paulo
Terrorism and hostages in Brazil
Role of CIA in Brazil

Conclusion

Good and bad aspects of career
Foreign Service as a career