

AMBASSADOR MARGARET D. TUTWILER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Alabama
- Finch College, University of Alabama (New College)
- Foreign travel
- Work with Republican Party, Birmingham, Alabama
- President Nixon
- Watergate
- Gridiron dinner

Washington, DC - Private Business

- Bo Calloway

Alabama - President Ford's Election Campaign - Political Advisor 1974-19xx

- Carter and Playboy interview
- Campaign
- George H.W. Bush

Houston, Texas - Bush Presidential Campaign - PAC 1978-19xx

- Jim Baker
- Schedule coordination
- Bush recognition problem
- Scheduling
- Caucuses

Arlington, Virginia - Bush Vice Presidential Campaign – Scheduler 19xx-1981

- Detroit Convention
- Campaign issues
- Reagan-Bush relations
- Problems
- Ronald Reagan

The White House - Assistant to Chief of Staff Baker 1981-1984

- Transition
- Duties
- Personalities
- Press corps dealings
- Teamwork
- Protocol
- President Reagan
- Press Secretary

Ed Meese
Mrs. Reagan
Leaks
Appointment process
White House career staff
Vice President's role
George Bush
Foreign Press
Cabinet officers
James Baker
Deputy Assistant to President (Political Affairs)	1984-1985
Reagan 1984 campaign staff
Air Force One
Treasury Department - Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs and Public Relations	1985-1989
Plaza Accord (G-7)
Treasury Secretary Baker
Operations
Press
Policy making
Treasury organization
Tax reforms
George Bush Campaign	1988-1989
Jim Baker's role
Responsibilities
Dukakis
Reagan and Bush's staff relations
Vice President as presidential candidate
Bush-Baker relationship
State Department - Spokesperson	1989
Transition
Secretary of State Baker's style
Appointments
Soviet relations
Soviet Union
Gorbachev
Administration
Duties
Press relations
Collegial atmosphere
Gulf War
Soviets leave Cuba

Baltic states
Shevardnadze
German unification
NATO
Hans-Dietrich Genscher
Israel
“Background” briefings
Foreign trips
Jackson Hole meeting
Soviet spokesmen
Soviet press
Arms control
Yeltsin
State-Pentagon relations
Soviet Union disintegration
Afghanistan
Latin America
Tiananmen Square
Ex-Yugoslavia
The French
Mitterrand
Congressional relations
UN
Baker resignation

The White House - Assistant to President for Communications
Issues