

AMBASSADOR WILLIAM R. TYLER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I

Background

- Born in France of American parents; raised in France and England
- Early schooling in England
- Edith Wharton
- Oxford University, Harvard University
- Private business, New York City
- Overseas French broadcasting, WWII
- Robert Sherwood

Office of War Information (OWI), New York City: Foreign Broadcast Control 1942-1943

- Personnel
 - Paul Warburg
 - King Victorio Emmanuelle
- Operations
- Objectives
- Communists
- Pierre Laval

Algiers, Algeria: Chief, Radio Division, OWI, Western Mediterranean 1943

- Marshal Petain
- Special Operations Executive (SOE)
- Montreal Preparation Cram course
- John Houseman
- Wartime environment
- Personnel
- Operations
- Giraud
- Sicily invasion
- Convoy to Algeria
- BBC
- General Mc Christal
- Invasion of France

Algiers, Algeria: OWI; Chief Psychological Warfare, West Mediterranean 1943-1944

- Preparations for Overlord landings
- Temporary duty, London
 - Preparations for Overlord
 - Bombings

Paris liberation

Paris, France: OWI: Deputy Director/ Director; France and North Africa De Gaulle Louis Galentiere Cass Canfield Projecting America's role Importance of Pacific War French attitude re US Communist Party Soviet Union Madelaine Carroll Douglas MacArthur Ambassador Jefferson Caffrey Soviet Ambassador Bogomolov French press	1944-1945
State Department: Office of Information and Cultural Affairs Chief, Southwestern Europe; Assistant Director, Overseas Programs Bill Benton Dean Acheson Recruitment in McCarthy era Operations	1945-1948
Paris, France: Counselor for Public Affairs for France and Northern Africa Marshall Plan Operations Ambassador Jefferson Caffery	1948-1953

PART II

Appointment as Foreign Service Officer, Class 2 Foreign Service Examination	1952
State Department: Deputy Director, Office of Western European Affairs	1954-1957
State Department: Director, Office of Western European Affairs	1958-1961
State Department: Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs	1961-1962
State Department: Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs Berlin Wall crisis Geographic responsibilities President Kennedy	1962-1965

McGeorge Bundy
Charles De Gaulle
President Johnson
George Ball
Dean Rusk
United, Integrated Europe concept
US European policy
Monnet's Europe
Adenauer/de Gaulle relationship
Adenauer view of Europe
Algeria
France and NATO
France recognizes Communist China
US/UK relations
Skybolt
State/Pentagon relationship
Multilateral Nuclear Force
UN Peacekeeping Forces
Office of German Affairs
Soviet Union
Kennedy/Khrushchev Vienna meeting
Adenauer/Kennedy relationship
Berlin access
Alex Johnson
Central Intelligence Agency
Office operations
Comments on the Foreign Service

Retirement

1965

Director of Dumbarton Oaks

United States Ambassador to the Netherlands

1965-1969

General comments

Vietnam War

Marshal de Lattre de Tassigny

Clark Clifford

Kennedy and Europe

Johnson and Europe

Death of President Kennedy

Dutch and Indonesia

Relations

Averell Harriman

Nuclear submarines/Landing Rights

William Middendorf

PART III

International Meetings

London : Tripartite: Role of NATO: Public Affairs advisor US, UK, FRANCE Public Relations aspects David Bruce North Atlantic Alliance	1950
Brussels : North Atlantic Council: Public Affairs advisor Operations Soviet Union	1950
Berlin : Foreign Ministers: Public Affairs advisor US, UK, FRANCE, USSR John Foster Dulles Molotov Gromyko Germany and NATO Duties Soviet delegation European views US dominance Cold War opportunities	1954
London : Nine Power Conference: Public Affairs advisor Germany joins NATO Chancellor Adenauer Duties	1954
Geneva : Heads of Government Conference: Member of US Delegation US, UK, France, USSR Dean Acheson Soviets “Spirit of Geneva”	1955
London : Suez Canal Crisis Conferences: Member of US Delegation US, UK, FRANCE Cause of conflict US policy British-French policy Nasser Secretary Dulles Use of force British-French war plans	1956

Accompanying President Kennedy on US and European visits

Objectives
Public Reception

Places visited

Duties

Canada visit

Law of the Sea

“Atom bomb”

Naval Multilateral Force

Mission to Adenauer

Adenauer/Kennedy relationship

President Kennedy’s oval office haircut