

AMBASSADOR JOHN EDWIN UPSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Stanford University
Draper Commission
Management Planning Staff	1964-1966
National policy papers and Bill Crockett
Comprehensive Country Programming System
U.S. relations with Ghana
CCPS and management
Frances Knight as Director of Passport Agency
Plan to change passport applications
Bipartisan foreign policy
U.S. Delegation to United Nations	1966-1968
Defending Johnson administration policies
Unusual experiences: Squeaky Fromm, George Harrison, and bogus memo
Executive Director of U.S. National Commission for UNESCO	1973-1977
Israel's demand to be part of UNESCO's Western Group
U.S. relations with UNESCO
Carter administration and liquidating the "plum book"
Caribbeana Council	1977-1981
Government in exile
Caribbean Basin Initiative
State Department resentment of political appointees
Coordinator of Caribbean Affairs	1981-1986
Duties
Plight of Haitians
Ambassador to Rwanda	1985-1987
Appointment
Political situation
Duties and staff
Relations with President
Involvement with Libya
Conclusion
Negative and positive memories
Foreign Service as a career	