

AMBASSADOR MICHAEL USSERY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in Columbia, South Carolina
Newberry College, South Carolina; Georgia State University
Office of the Governor of Georgia; State Planning
Political campaigning

Washington, DC; Administrative Assistant 1979-1981
to Congressman Carroll Campbell Campaign financing Family
Political environment
Issues

State Department; International Organizations Bureau 1981-1983
Political atmosphere
Jeane Kirkpatrick
Alexander Haig
President Ronald Reagan
Latin America
UNESCO
Congressional liaison

The White House; Liaison with the State Department 1983-1985
Reagan's ambassadorial appointments
Reagan administration
Secretary George Shultz
White House operations
Secretary James Baker
Mrs. Reagan's influence

Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for North Africa 1985-1988
(Congressional and Press)
Libya and Qadhafi
Libya territorial waters claim
Soviets
Abu Nidal
Berlin bombing
Congressional support
Arab world issues
Afghan war
Taliban
Palestinian Peace Process

U.S. air raid on Qadhafi
Presidential Election Campaign; George Bush campaign: Assistant to the Campaign Manager Bush "Points of Light" speech Campaign Manager Lee Atwater	1988-1989
Ambassador to Morocco Confirmation and presentation of credentials Voice of America transmission center Peace Corps Staffing Marine Corps AID Mission NATO F-16's U.S. commercial interests Relations French Drugs Border problems Arab summit Gulf War Evacuation War time environment Moroccan reaction to Gulf War King Hassan U.S. visit Israel Royal family Foreign debt	1989-1992
Retirement Private and government activities Morocco-U.S. Business Council	1992