

AMBASSADOR CHRISTOPHER VAN HOLLEN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Department of State Secretariat 1951-1954

- Learning how foreign policy machinery worked
- NSC-State relationship
- Truman- Acheson
- Transition to Eisenhower administration
- McCarthyism
- John Foster Dulles

New Delhi and Calcutta 1954-1958

- Interest in India
- Political officer in Delhi and Calcutta
- Travel and reporting in India
- Concern about India's drift to left
- Congress Party
- Indian officials
- Visits to Dacca
- Consulate General relations with embassy

Pakistan 1959-1961

- Karachi and political reporting
- Indian and Pakistani biases in Foreign Service
- U.S. interests in Pakistan
- SEATO
- Political situation in Pakistan
- Mohammed Ayub Khan
- Strains on U.S.-Pakistani relationship
- Move to Murree office to service Rawalpindi

NATO Affairs (RPM) 1961-1964

- Guidance for political consultations in NATO
- Relations with other bureaus in Department

ANKARA 1965-1968

- Relations with Greece- Cyprus
- NATO
- Dealing with Turks
- Turkish view of Soviets

NEA 1968-1972

Indo-Pakistan conflict over East Pakistan
Public opinion on side of Indians
Nixon administration on Pakistani side
Pakistani role in opening to China
Attempting even-handed policy
Lack of objectivity of U.S. ambassadors on scene
Bypassing ambassadors
Role of U.S. consulate general in Dacca
Joseph Sisco and Parker Hart
Kissinger and NSC
Bangladesh as “international basket case”

Ambassador to Sri Lanka

1972-1976

How appointed
View of Bandaranaike government as unfriendly
Few U.S. interests, strategic or commercial
Dealing with Mrs. Bandaranaike
Official and private behavior of Sri Lankans
Reaction to U.S. departure from Vietnam
Opening to China
Explaining Watergate
Non-aligned movement and Sri Lanka
Sri Lanka and India
Also ambassador to Maldives

Senior Seminar and Inspection Corps

1976-1979

Foreign Service as a career
Role of wife in Foreign Service career