

AMBASSADOR ROBERT H.B. WADE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Childhood in PA
Exchange fellowship in France
Ph.D. from Yale in 1942
Japanese language training during WWII
Service in the Pacific
Naval Intelligence officer in Washington
Office of Naval Intelligence	1946-1954
Chief Coordinating Analyst for the Far East
ONI involvement in the Korean War
Information from China
Office of the Secretary of Defense	1954-1961
Director of the Office of NSC Affairs
Liaison between NSC and Defense
The Eisenhower national security apparatus
Emphasis on the Soviet threat
Eisenhower view on Vietnam
The Hungarian uprising and the Suez crisis
Evolution of the NSC
Kennedy Administration from a DOD perspective
Robert McNamara and chaos at Defense
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs	1961-1964
Head of Multilateral Educational Affairs
Involvement in UNESCO affairs
US interests in UNESCO
Permanent Representative to UNESCO	1964-1969
Problem of incompetence at the UNESCO mission
Origin of appointment
UNESCO activities
Controversy over UNESCO involvement in communications
SU and UNESCO
Instructions from Washington
Lack of Israeli cooperation
Support from Congress
Assistant Director of ACDA	1969-1973
Origin of appointment

Head of economic bureaus
Rat research controversy
Congressman Rooney and televisions in offices
Quality of CIA information
View of SU
Impressions of Gerard Smith
Problems with Kissinger
Overall impressions of the State Department