

AMBASSADOR JENONNE WALKER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Raised in Oklahoma
- University of Oklahoma; Columbia University
- Secretary, Naval Attachés Office, London, England
- NBC Television News, New York

Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)

- Analyst, West European Affairs
- Assistant to the Director of Central Intelligence

State Department; Policy Planning Staff

Stockholm, Sweden; Political Councilor 1983

- Relations
- Technology transfers
- Nordic Nuclear Free Zone
- Embassy staff

State Department; Intelligence and Research (INR) 1984

State Department; Political-Military Bureau, Senior Advisor 1984-1985

State Department; Office Director, European and U.N. Arms Control 1985-1990

- Reagan-Gorbachev negotiations
- Security and Confidence Building Measures
- NATO-Warsaw Pact negotiations
- Opposition to arms control treaties
- State-Defense differences
- Chemical Weapons Treaty
- Work schedule
- Soviet Union collapse
- Reagan determination
- Reykjavik Summit
- Malta Summit
- Bush-Baker Team
- Human Rights in Foreign Policy
- Warren Christopher
- Henry Kissinger

Retirement

President, Carnegie Endowment U.S. - European Relations	1990-1993
National Security Council; European Affairs Bosnia President Clinton Operations U.S. Policies Vance-Owen Peace Plan Force against the Serbs issue NATO enlargement Partnership for Peace NATO Summit, 1994	1993-1995
Ambassador to Czechoslovakia, Democracy Economy “Civil Society” Philanthropy Government Prime Minister Klaus President Havel NATO membership Peace Corps VIP visits Jews Slovakia	1995-1998
Retirement	1998
Post-Retirement World Monument Fund (historic preservation)	1998-