

SIDNEY WEINTRAUB

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in New York City, raised in Brooklyn
CCNY, University of Missouri, Yale,
American University
U.S. Army, World War II
Entered Foreign Service 1949

Madagascar, Antananarivo	1949-1951
Vice consul
Bubonic and pulmonary plague
French presence
Mexico, Mexico City	1951-1954
Visa and political officer
Ambassador William O'Dwyer
Reporting on elections
EA, Northeast Asian Affairs	1954-1957
Japanese-Korean Affairs
Yale University	1957-1958
Economic training
Japan, Tokyo	1958-1959
Political advisor to Commander of
U.S. forces in Japan
Security treaty
Japanese language use
Ambassador and Mrs. McArthur
Thailand, Bangkok	1959-1961
Economic officer
Vietnam War influence
U.S. interests
Economic Bureau, Commercial Policy	1961-1965
GATT negotiations
Chicken War
General System of Preferences
UNTAD
Negotiating with the OECD
Japan negotiations
Canada negotiations

Senior Seminar	1965-1966
Chile, Santiago	1966-1969
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Economic counselor Alliance for Progress The "Chicago Boys" - U.S. influence Pre-presidential election atmosphere Chilean democracy Economic situation U.S. policies in Chile
Economic Bureau, International Finance and Development	1969-1974
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assistant Secretary Department of State's role in international affairs The Paris Club Balance of payments problems State Dept. vs Treasury Dept. Congressional interest Growth of Eurodollar market The "Nixon Shock" Nixon tapes U.S.-Canada auto agreement The North-South dynamic Frances Wilson
AID, Interagency Coordination	1974-1975
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assistant Administrator
University of Texas	1976-1996
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professor School of Public Policy 	