

AMBASSADOR MELISSA FOELSCH WELLS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background and Family

- Childhood in California, Mexico, New York
- Mother: Movie Actress and Opera Singer
- Early and Constant Reader
- Georgetown University

Department of State

- Bureau of Intelligence and Research

Guinea-Bissau – Ambassador

Multilateral Diplomacy

- New York – US Mission to UN
- United Nations Development Program
- Bi-lateral v. Multilateral Work

Uganda – United Nations Resident representative

- Early Interest in Africa
- Life Threatening Experiences:
 - Car-jacking Incident
 - Road Blocks, Ambush
- Accomplishments

Mozambique – Ambassador

- Challenging Assignment
- Confirmation Delayed, Senator Helms
- Shift in FRELIMO Policies
- Children of War
- Assistance Programs for Children
- Goals and Achievements

Zaire – Ambassador

- Political Pluralism
- September 1991 Rebellion
- January 1993 Rebellion
- Mobutu's Yacht
- Deterioration of Country
- Situation in the Kasai
- Comments on Mobutu
- Nickname of Tantine
- Massacre of Religious Demonstrators

AIDS Program
Trip to Mountains of the Moon
Political Turmoil

Personal Health

Cysticercosis in Brain
Long-Time Treatment
National Institutes of Health

Comments

Sexism in reverse
Sexist Experience
Foreign Service Restrictions on Marriage
Stress: Response of Women to Personal Housing
Children in the Foreign Service