

GEORGE L. WEST

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Early interest in foreign affairs
Far East trip
Work for Standard Oil of California
Assignment in Saudi Arabia
Entrance into Foreign Service
Assignment in Windsor, Ontario
Godthab, Greenland	1940-1942
Establishing consulate at Godthab
Cryolite mine issue
Establishing bases in Greenland
Stockholm, Sweden	1942-1943
Problem of travel to Sweden
Difficult living conditions
Helsinki	1943-1945
Peculiar Finnish position in war
Situation in Finland
1943 message to break relations with Finland
Katyn massacre and continuation of relations
Progress of war in Scandinavia
Work with Netherlands and Norwegian delegations
Southern European Division	1945-1948
U.S. interests in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia
U.S. relationship with Yugoslavia
Danube Conference
View of Soviet Union at State
Luxembourg	1948-1950
Chargé
Admiral Kirk
The Western European Union
Perle Mesta assigned as minister
Perle Mesta as ambassador
Frankfurt/Bonn	1950-1953
Public affairs program
Large American presence in Frankfurt

Work for High Commission
Reestablishing the German Foreign Office
Problems in dealing with allies

Office of Western Europe (WE) 1954-1957
Director of Franco-Iberian Affairs
Origin of assignment
North African Affairs
French relationship with Spain
U.S. military relationship with region
Appointment as Deputy Director of WE Importance of military relationship France and NATO
Role in Vietnamese negotiations at U.N.

Paris 1957-1959
Political Counselor
Dealing with military issues
Military assistance issues
U.S. relations with Portugal
George Ball

Conclusion:
Inspection Corps
French policy and Vietnam